I'm just going to put my two cents in, here, and say that I truly believe that Acer service manuals should be made available for whoever seeks them out. Of course, a nominal charge would apply, but they should be available. I have an Aspire E1-731, and would really benefit from having that information. I imagine others likely feel similarly.

I do understand the Swift 1 is an entry-level low-end budget laptop and likely not high on the list of priorities for Acer but were now in 2019 and updates and fixes are always appreciated. These are not preventing me from using the laptop on a daily basis but just more of a "wish list" as an owner.
