Bloom by Elizabeth Scott - Goodreads

I put Elizabeth Scott's Bloom high up on my list of favorite contemporary young adult novels--the emotions are authentic feeling and the narrator is compelling. What I Loved: Lauren is a great narrator. Scott has written her in a way that you really feel what Lauren is feeling, when she's feeling it.

Bloom by Elizabeth Scott

— Elizabeth Scott, quote from Bloom "I think the way I feel when I look at Evan comes from her. In pictures taken the day she married my dad, she was reckless, laughing, spinning around in circles. She looked like her whole world was him. She looked a kind of happy I can't even imagine.

Elizabeth Scott (author) - Wikipedia

In Bloom, Elizabeth Scott does a remarkable job of describing the conflicting emotions warring in Lauren. On the one hand, she doesn't want to give up what she already has with Dave. But on the other hand, there's a part of her that really wants to take a risk and plunge headfirst into what might be true love.
