But Not The Hippopotamus Boynton
But Not the Hippopotamus (Boynton on Board) Board book - November 30, 1982 by Sandra Boynton (Author)

Amazon.com: But Not the Hippopotamus (Boynton on Board)
A cute Boynton book with a story line that all my children could enjoy, even if it was just to be able to repeat the word hippopotamus over and over again. Not one of our all time favorites, but adorable illustrations and one we all enjoyed.

But Not the Hippopotamus (Boynton on Board) by Sandra Boynton
Sandra Boynton has created a lot of lovable animals in her books. It is usually the Turkey who gets things wrong or is left out. In this book there are no turkeys."A cat and two rats are buying new hats. But not the hippopotamus."That sets the feel for this story of the lonely hippo who seems to be left out of all of the fun.

Then there's "But Not the Hippopotamus," Boynton's board-book masterpiece. In the book, a hippo opts out of a series of activities partaken by her compatriots, each time invoking the titular refrain. A hog and a frog cavort in the bog, for example, and a moose and a goose together have juice... but not the hippopotamus.

But Not the Hippopotamus by Sandra Boynton
All the animals are racing and playing together ... but not the hippopotamus. Boynton is about the happy, though, so the hippopotamus overcomes his fear and joins the gang in the end. The story is cute, although it lacks Boynton's usual lyrical touch. The rhyme isn't bad, but it doesn't flow as smoothly as many of her other stories.
