A young girl moves back and forth between her divorced parents' homes, along with her canine companion, Fred, who has several bad habits that neither parent appreciates. When the dog wears out his welcome at both homes, the child must forcefully remind the adults that, "Fred stays with me!" and help work out solutions for his naughty behavior.

Fred Stays With Me! | A Mighty Girl

"Fred stays with ME!" All ends well, as the families devise ways to manage Fred's canine idiosyncrasies. It all sounds simple enough, but Coffelt offers a fresh, villain-free look at a split family and at a girl who finds strength, love and reassuring consistency in the dear pooch who is all her own.
